

Featured Mural Artists

1. Diego Rivera:

A renowned Mexican muralist known for large public frescoes that shaped the Mexican mural movement. His work highlights social and political themes, often centered on labor and indigenous identity.

2. Faith Ringgold

An African-American artist known for her story quilts and murals addressing civil rights and gender. Her bold use of pattern and narrative gives voice to underrepresented histories.

3. Keith Haring:

A street artist famous for vivid figures and bold lines. Haring's public murals brought attention to social issues like AIDS, apartheid, and youth empowerment during the 1980s.

